

The Country Club District

An Exclusive Home District—That Is Grand View

It is pleasing to the owners and promoters of this beautiful addition to see how many people of wealth and good taste are attracted to it and are building permanent homes there.

The Newman Investment Co. have always done much for the home builders in the additions they have marketed. That is an asset home builders and investors take into account.

It is worth while to take a drive through Grand View if you contemplate investing in suburban property. We will gladly take you in our autos.

HOME OF A. C. HOBBLE.—Lots 22, 23, 24, Block 40, Fort Boulevard, Grand View Addition. Perry & Kirkpatrick, Builders.

Note the quality and style of the buildings here are much above the average, and that is significant.

One man may make a mistake and build a fine home in the wrong section, but where the many are going they are likely to win.

Grand View is high above the smoke and dust. Pure Water, Telephones, a Paved Street, Electric Lights, Street Railway. Prices are right and bearing up, a constant demand. The terms have been made to accommodate the wage earner and the man of means. See us.

NEWMAN INVESTMENT COMPANY

Phone 550

SOLE AGENTS

104 San Antonio St.

SOCIAL DOINGS IN THE SOUTHWEST

FORT DAVIS, TEXAS.

Fort Davis, Tex., Nov. 26.—Mrs. H. G. Thompson entertained the Bridge club members at her home on West Main street. Those present were: Mrs. James Stewart, Mrs. T. J. Drimble, Mrs. O. L. Shipman, Misses Grace Stewart, Eva and Lenore Jones, Eva Dumble and Mrs. H. G. Thompson. Lunch was served after games.

Mrs. A. M. Lewis has returned from a short visit to Houston and San Antonio, Tex.

H. A. King, J. W. and R. H. Espey have returned from Shafter.

W. S. Miller is back from a few days' stay at San Antonio.

J. W. Merrill and Sheriff J. B. Davis are back from Eagle Pass, where they attended court.

James Nunn is at Colorado City.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Prude have returned to their home at Colorado City after spending a few weeks visiting relatives in Iowa country.

W. Keesey writes from Cleveland, O., that he expects to leave there soon for his home in Fort Davis. He has been away several months.

Miss Genevieve Thompson is visiting Mrs. George Walker at San Antonio.

Miss Jessie Pruitt has gone with her father and mother to California for an extended visit.

The public school is planning to have a picnic supper on the mountain Friday.

Dr. James Bates and family have moved to Alpine.

The public school rendered a program consisting of vocal and instrumental music, recitations and dialogues. A number of visitors were present.

Mrs. W. T. Jones has returned from San Antonio after a month's visit with relatives.

Mrs. Sarah Locke is spending a few days with Mrs. James Nunn.

Miss Fay Glenn is visiting her sister, Mrs. Whit Leverett, at Fort Stockton.

Leister Smith and Sam Buntion were here from Valentine.

Noble McCutcheon, of Williamson county, is here.

Beau McCutcheon has come to San Marcos to visit his son Jimmie. McCutcheon, who is attending school at Colorado Institute.

Misses Mable Bly and Effie Covington, who went to El Paso for medical treatment, are both expected home soon they have improved so rapidly.

Florence Davis, who has had an eight weeks' attack of typhoid fever, has at last been clear of fever for several days.

W. G. White is staying in the drug store in the absence of Dr. H. M. Jones, who is at San Antonio, Tex.

Charles Mulhurn has completed teaching his new vacant lots on East Main street.

Mrs. G. F. Dale, who lives one mile east of town, has raised over 200 turkeys this year.

Rev. J. Allen Ray, presiding elder of the El Paso district, will preach in Fort Davis tonight at the Methodist Episcopal church.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. John Livingston, Miss Kendrick, of Marfa, were visitors here.

A Night of Terror.

Few nights are more terrible than that of a mother looking on her child choking and gasping for breath during an attack of croup, and nothing in the house to relieve it. Many mothers have passed nights of terror in this situation. A little forethought will enable you to avoid all this. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a certain cure for croup and has never been known to fail. Keep it.

For sale by all druggists.

TULAROSA, N. M.

Tularosa, N. M., Nov. 26.—The Earnest Working club will be entertained at the home of Mrs. J. J. Dale.

J. B. Avant and daughter of Ruidoso, were guests of Frank Hilburn and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Ervan Daines and children are expected here from La Luz, N. M., to visit her sister, Mrs. Walter Pickar, and family.

Miss Mabel Harper is here from Mesquero visiting her sister, Mrs. Denton Sims.

Mrs. Edwin Peppard has left for El Paso to join her husband.

Mr. and Mrs. Marian Sims are here from Mesquero, N. M.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Martin are being congratulated on the arrival of a new baby girl.

F. L. Hawkins and family have moved from the J. L. Purdy ranch on to the A. L. Douglas ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubbard Knight are expected here from Roswell, N. M., to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eli Knight.

Mrs. Elsie Sutherland is here from Roswell as guest of Mrs. Mabel Prude.

C. C. Bourne and family are expected here soon from Jackson, N. M., to spend the winter.

L. L. Jones is here from El Paso visiting his family.

Fred Gutierrez is home from Bent, N. M.

Mr. Martin arrived home from Sherman, Texas, and found a new baby girl to welcome him.

George Hyde has returned from Las Cruces where he has been visiting his brother, Oscar Hyde and family.

Mr. Brown has arrived here from the Deming convention to visit friends.

Mrs. Miller, who has been a guest of Mrs. John Hunter, has returned to Tucuman.

Mrs. J. B. Gliven, who have been here visiting their daughter, have returned to Three Rivers, N. M.

Mrs. D. Harkness has sold his residence in the north part of town to Mrs. Croford and children.

BALMORHEA, TEX.

Balmorhea, Tex., Nov. 26.—Dr. Ham-bright and Tom Huey have returned to their home at Roby, after a two weeks' visit with J. B. Odne and family.

E. T. West has made a business trip to Pecos.

Gid Rowden has returned to Pecos after spending a week in Balmorhea.

Mrs. Burch, of Austin, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. P. Cole.

C. C. Kounts has returned from Pecos.

R. P. Head and wife spent a day in Pecos.

Robert Wagon has returned from a two weeks' visit with relatives in east Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Albertson and daughter, Frances, are visiting friends in Balmorhea.

Miss Bernice Judkins, principal of the Balmorhea public school, has been quite sick. Henry Hicks is teaching in her absence.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith have returned to their home in Pomeroy, Ohio, after a short visit with Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Johnson.

Quite a crowd of Balmorhea young people went to the dance at Saragosa. Some of them were: E. T. West and wife, J. N. Williams and wife, W. M. McGary and George Edgell.

ALPINE, TEXAS.

Alpine, Tex., Nov. 26.—N. Q. Tanquary, of Fort Stockton, was in Alpine on business.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Gillett are visiting in Fort Stockton.

J. O. Langford was in town from Boquillas.

L. D. Miller, a nearby ranchman, was married at Eagle Pass to Mrs. E. E. Knight. Mr. and Mrs. Miller will make their home on their ranch in Jeff Davis county.

Roy Harrison, the 14 year old son of William Harrison, who has been seriously ill, is reported to be improving.

Mrs. Tony Weyerts and her little daughter, Dorothy, of Deming, N. M., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Gardiner.

L. B. Caruthers has been called to Florida by the serious illness of his mother.

Rev. H. C. Bass is spending two weeks at the Tippet Fruit ranch, hunting deer and bear on Mittle peak and nearby mountains.

W. C. Easterling went to San Antonio to attend the marriage of his daughter, Louise, to William E. Granis.

E. N. Smith, of Riverside, Cal., has been in Alpine on business in connection with his large land holdings near by.

H. P. Anderson has gone to his old home in Alabama for a few weeks.

S. M. Draper and family have moved to Alpine from Edwards county.

J. L. Pullinger has returned from El Paso, and brings the news that his son, Press, who was seriously wounded three weeks ago while out hunting, is recovering from the effects of his wound.

Rev. J. Allen Ray, presiding elder of the El Paso district, has been in Alpine.

J. W. Kokernot, of San Antonio, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Kokernot.

J. B. Irving and Ben Frost made a trip to Marathon to receive some Mexican cattle.

Mrs. C. H. Moorfield and children, of Marathon, have been visiting friends in Alpine.

MORENCI, ARIZ.

Morenci, Ariz., Nov. 26.—E. R. Rankin, mechanical engineer with the El Paso Bridge and Iron company, has returned to El Paso after spending a week in camp.

W. Ladell, of New York, has a position as mechanical engineer for the Detroit Copper company.

C. E. Mills, former general manager of the Detroit Copper company, and Kenyon Burch, of Miami, were business visitors to Morenci this week.

V. F. Hastings, general foreman of the Detroit Copper company, and C. P. Starger, converter foreman, made an inspection trip to the Arizona Copper company smelter at Clifton Saturday.

Mrs. Harlow Brubaker, of Clifton, is visiting with relatives and friends in camp this week.

Morenci people have a carnival this week. The hall ground has been placed in condition to accommodate the various attractions.

T. R. Franklin, of the D. C. company power plant, fell and sprained his wrist. He will be laid up several days as the consequence.

OTHER SOUTHWEST SOCIETY NEWS ON LAST PAGE.

OTHER SOUTHWEST SOCIETY NEWS ON LAST PAGE.

OTHER SOUTHWEST SOCIETY NEWS ON LAST PAGE.

OTHER SOUTHWEST SOCIETY NEWS ON LAST PAGE.

WILCOX, ARIZ.

Wilcox, Ariz., Nov. 26.—W. T. Johnson has returned from a trip to El Paso and accompanied his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Johnson, to their home at Bureka Springs.

The art department of the Women's club met at the home of Mrs. H. A. Morgan. Italian art was the subject of discussion, and papers on that subject were read by Mrs. C. C. Duxee, Mrs. C. O. Anderson and Miss E. Morgan.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Allaire were in from their ranch near here.

George B. Ryan, of El Paso, was a business visitor here this week.

Miss Mary M. Shaw has become the bride of J. Pierce Richardson. The wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Angle, and only a few intimate friends of the couple were present. Immediately after the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Richardson left by automobile for Dragon, Ariz., where they will reside. Mr. Richardson being largely interested in the mining business at that point.

The Aid society of the Methodist Episcopal church met at the home of Mrs. F. C. Roemer. After transacting the business matters of the society, refreshments were served, and a pleasant social hour was enjoyed.

E. P. Wash, chief engineer of the Masco Copper company, who was called to Chicago several weeks ago by the serious illness of his mother, has returned, and says that his mother is now well on the road to recovery.

T. J. Johnson has returned from a business trip to El Paso, Amarillo, and other Texas points.

Mrs. A. Redus has been on the sick list this week.

J. B. Cook has been confined to the house for several days on account of illness.

Dr. J. Ellis, of Cochise, made a trip to Wilcox in his machine.

E. R. Hooker and J. M. Hooker have arrived from Los Angeles and have gone to the Sierra Bonita ranch to look after their cattle interests.

CUTTER, N. M.

Cutter, N. M., Nov. 26.—Mrs. Ella Ridley and Bill Thorn, of Engle, were down visiting the Gore family.

James Ross, of the Cutter Mercantile firm, has returned from El Paso, where he has been for treatment. He expects to go back in a few days.

John Griner, foreman of the Ritch Cattle company, has returned from Iowa. He says he has just contracted calves for $25 per head to be delivered in February.

Andy Hunt and family from San Marcial, N. M., are here visiting his sister, Mrs. James Ross. They are looking for a business location.

Henry Long has struck a fine stream of water in his well at 30 feet on his place.

Mrs. Tyson Bean has returned from Los Angeles, Cal., where she has been visiting for the past month.

Earl Graham and wife are spending a couple of weeks at C. J. Graham's home, Sunshine ranch.

Mrs. Leslie Sowell is up at the Graham ranch visiting her parents this week.

Pat Hughes, of Hot Springs, is over visiting old friends whom he has not seen in 10 years.

The first snow of the season came this week.

CARRIZO, N. M.

Carrizozo, N. M., Nov. 26.—The funeral of Capt. Joseph A. Paris took place here from the Baptist church. Rev. Herbert Haywood officiating. Capt. Paris was born at Elizabethtown, Ky., and was 49 years old. He held the rank of captain and pilot in the United States merchant marine for over 15 years, his principal service having been on the Ohio and Mississippi rivers. He died of consumption at the Marine hospital at Fort Stanton.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Gurney have left for El Paso, where Mrs. Gurney and little son, Frank, will remain for the winter.

Mrs. M. Paris will leave in a day or two for an extended visit with friends at Tucuman.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Sager have returned from a week's outing in the Carrizozo mountains.

J. B. Salberg, who recently came here from Boulder, Colo., is building a residence near his place near town.

A. Williams, formerly of El Paso, has located here, having rented the hotel building and will go into the boot and shoe business.

E. R. Kelley has left for his old home at Alvarado, Tex., where he will visit until after the Christmas holidays.

Miss Annie Hawley has left for Channing, Okla., where she will spend some time with relatives.

A. S. Demler, who has been spending some time in El Paso, is at home again.

Preparations for several holiday functions of considerable local interest are under way, including a home talent entertainment by the band boys.

Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Warden, of Ancho, are spending a few days in town.

Charles H. Lee and wife, of Los Angeles, Cal., were Carrizozo visitors this week, going from here to Capitan for several days.

Roland E. Severs, of El Paso, is a Carrizozo business visitor this week.

Mrs. C. H. Moorfield and L. P. McDowell, of El Paso, are spending a few days here this week.

TOMBSTONE, ARIZ.

Tombstone, Ariz., Nov. 26.—Judge McCall, of Serrano, was a county seat visitor today.

Attorneys Albert Sames and John F. Raulo, of Phoenix, have returned home after transacting business in the superior court.

Judge F. E. Sutter and wife have returned from a short trip to Bisbee.

A. H. Gardner is back from Phoenix, where he had business before the corporation commission.

Mrs. April has gone to Bakersfield on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Bert Bosch.

Paul R. Warnick is in Los Angeles spending the month with his family. He will return to Tombstone the latter part of the month.

E. H. Reeves and family are entertaining for the winter Mrs. Emily Brown and daughter, Miss Anna. Their home is in Leavenworth, Kan.

Mrs. F. Kyle, of El Paso, spent a few days this week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Wolcott.

George Julian, of Detroit, Mich., is visiting his cousin, attorney Lee O. Woolery. Mr. Julian is a bright young man for he has in a few days' time decided that the southwest is the place for a young man and he intends to locate in it.

American Dairy Lunch No. 1

We Reduce the Cost of Living to the Masses

Every Day Menu

Tea, Black or Green	05
Cocoa	05
Milk	05
Ham Sandwiches with Bread or Buns	05
Beef Sandwiches with Bread or Buns	05
Egg Sandwiches with Bread or Buns	05
Cheese Sandwich	10c
Chicken Sandwich, Bread or Buns	15
Hot Roast Beef Sandwich, Mashed Potatoes, Bread & Gravy	15
Meat Pot Pie	10
English Beef Stew with Vegetables (Bowl)	10
Chili Con Carne	10
Boston Baked Pork & Beans	10
Potato Salad with Bread	10
Eggs (2) Any Style—Bread or Toast	20
Vegetables	05
Soup	05
Cereals, of all kinds (half and half)	10
Hot Cakes or Waffles, Maple Syrup	10
Pies of all kinds, per cut	05
Cake of all kinds, per cut	05
Coffee Cake, per cut	05
Doughnuts (2)	05
Crullers	05
Apple Sauce, Prunes and other Sauces	05
Fruit Salads	10
Grape Fruit (half)	10
Orange whole or sliced	10
Baked Apple with Cream	10
Cup Custard, Rice or other Puddings with Cream	10
Coffee	05

Short Orders of All Kinds a Special Feature

Our Special Dishes Change Daily
We Purchase the Best the Market Affords
Our Own Pastries and Home Cooking.

American Dairy Lunch No. 1
Basement Roberts-Banner Building.